

Domestic Violence

Symptoms, warning signs, and what to do

The Governor's Interagency Committee for State Employed Women presents a workshop in conjunction with National Domestic Violence Awareness Month and the Governor's Executive Order 96-05 on Domestic Violence in the Workplace.

This workshop is back by popular demand and has been extended to all day.

The workshop will feature profiles of batterers, how to identify abusers, addressing misconceptions and myths, a survivor speaker, a law enforcement view of domestic violence, and information on background checks.

A special presentation by Todd Denny will be performed addressing domestic violence and the awareness and prevention of it.

These topics will be presented by:

- Norm Nickle, MSW,
Hoy and Nickle Associates
- Catherine Steele, DV Survivor
- Detective Roland Weiss, Thurston
County Sheriff's Department
- Todd Denny, Awareness
- Kathy Shore, Work Place
Responsibility
